Raindrops Were Falling on Their Heads!

Brooklyn Park's National Night Out Celebration may have been rained on, but it did not dampen the spirits of many residents. Over 160 neighborhoods took their parties into garages, houses, or under picnic pavilions to share food, fun and party in the rain. Many neighborhoods collected school supplies for CEAP. "I was impressed to see that even with the heavy rains, many of the parties continued in a garage or house," said Police Chief Wade Setter.

Many local businesses and community groups joined the Brooklyn Park Crime Prevention Association (BPCPA) and spent the day preparing to Light up the Park. Once again the BPCPA generously donated the money for the pony rides from the Animals of Waltons Hollow. Embarg donated money for the Junior Ambassadors to serve ice cream. The BPCPA also set up tents, decorated and readied popcorn for hundreds. The Minneapolis Elks Lodge #44 prepared hotdogs provided by Rainbow Foods. St. Gerard's Cornfest, BP Recreation & Parks, Target, Ryland Homes, Women of Today and Living Word Christian Fellowship planned activities for children and families. Grace Fellowship, Brooklyn Park Evangelical Church and Caribou Coffee provided beverages. Unfortunately, due to the 25 minute downpour, the Light up the Park event was cancelled.

This year's National Night Out was another great success, despite the wet weather!

Golden Spud Found on Family Outing

This year, Spud McTater kept all his eyes on the family heirloom, the golden spud. But despite keeping all his eyes peeled, and even with the help of his friends, Spud again lost track of his prized golden spud.

Derek Blinkman found the heirloom on Wednesday, July 5, while on the bike trail in Oak Grove Park. His wife, Jennifer, and neighbors, Dave and Adam Jensen, assisted in the search.

"I just knew it was close to the Target campus," said Blinkman. "When the clue about '101 jokes' was posted, (we thought) if we followed the power lines at 101st Ave into the park we might find it. And sure enough, there it was hidden in a clump of birch trees along the bike path."

Spud McTater stated, "I am overjoyed that my spud was found so early. I can now enjoy the summer. I would like to thank the Blinkmans and Jensens for finding my spud and express my appreciation to Wells Fargo for providing the reward."

LDI Partnership with City of Brooklyn Park

Liberty Carton, a division of Liberty Diversified Industries (LDI), is partnering with the City of Brooklyn Park to aid in reforestation efforts in residential areas and city parks throughout the community.

Restoration efforts began this spring when Liberty Carton and LDI employees assisted with the distribution of approximately 500 trees as part of the Arbor Day Tree Sale. At 6:30 p.m. on September 18, Liberty Carton and Brooklyn Park officials will plant a 15 foot Black Hills Spruce at City Hall to commemorate the one year anniversary of the storm.

"We're looking forward to partnering with Brooklyn Park to support the community's united front to recover from last year's damage," said Larry Brauch, LDI Director of Marketing and Community Relations. "The city's strong sense of community - particularly in the face of adversity - is something we feel proud and honored to be part of."

"Liberty Diversified Industries has a long tradition of community service and support," said Brooklyn Park Mayor Steve Lampi. "We are grateful for their generosity. Truly, they make a difference in our community. Our partners, working with the city on the reforestation efforts, are another reason why Brooklyn Park is a great place to live work and play."

On Saturday, October 28, Liberty Carton and LDI will partner with the city on Make a Difference Day projects. City staff, community volunteers, and LDI employees will plant trees as part of reforestation efforts in Central and Sunny Acre Parks.

If you are interested in volunteering go to the city website www.brooklynpark.org for more information or call the Special Events line at 763.493.8013.

The City of Brooklyn Park will host a tree sale again next spring. Order forms for next spring's Arbor Day Tree Sale will be available in February. Until then, check out the discount coupon from local nurseries in this and future Park Pages newsletters (see below)!

BP to Host Community Unity Event

Following the rained out National Night Out event on August 1, 2006, the city of Brooklyn Park has added a third community event to its busy summer schedule. CommUnity Outshines Adversity will begin at 6:30 p.m. on September 20 at Noble Sports Park and will include many of the activities cancelled for National Night Out.

National Night Out serves to bring the community together, neighborhood by neighborhood, to fight back against crime. The September 20 event will celebrate the unity demonstrated as the community worked together to pick up the pieces last fall after the storm damaged hundreds of homes and destroyed thousands of trees. "Outshines" denotes overcoming the September storm, as well as the rainstorm that canceled National Night Out programming.

The CommUnity Outshines Adversity event will begin at 6:30 p.m. with ice cream, children's games, face painting, balloons and food. Police canine unit demonstrations will begin at 7 p.m. and other police and fire department demonstrations will follow. Door prizes, including trees, will be given away throughout the evening. A "Best Rain Outfit" contest will be held at 7:30 p.m., judged by the Brooklyn Park Crime Prevention Association and Tater Daze Teams with a $50 Applebee's gift certificate as the first place prize. The evening will close with fireworks at 8:30 p.m., weather permitting, of course!

Community Health Fair

A free Health Fair will be held Saturday, September 23, from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. at the Community Activity Center, Armory Gym. The event will include demonstrations, exhibit booths, information on the new Step up to Health program, food, children's activities and more!
