FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

HELP THE BROOKLYN PARK POLICE EXPLORERS
RAISE MONEY FOR A GREAT CAUSE
*Pancake Breakfast Saturday, March 6 from 8 to 11 a.m.

Brooklyn Park, MN (January 28, 2010) – Buttermilk pancakes...sausage to go with it? What will you have? That's what members of the Brooklyn Park Police Explorers Post will ask you if you come to their pancake breakfast on Saturday, March 6 from 8 a.m. to 11 a.m. It will be held at Applebee's Restaurant at 7901 Brooklyn Boulevard in Brooklyn Park.

Explorers will serve you a delicious breakfast that includes pancakes, sausage and all the fixins' to start your day. Tickets are on sale right now and they're only six bucks per person! You can get them from any Brooklyn Park Explorer or call Officer Jeffrey Tomaszewski at 763-493-8295. You can also buy them at the event.

Proceeds of the event benefit the Explorers, who are high school students interested in a career in law enforcement. This fundraiser is very important to these young folks because they would all like to compete in the National Police Explorer competition in Atlanta this July. To do that, the group has to raise between $8,000 and $10,000.

The organization prides itself on encouraging confidence and self-esteem in young folks.
